About Little Rock, Arkansas

A City of Legacy, Progress, and Southern Hospitality

Nestled on the banks of the Arkansas River, Little Rock is the capital city of the state of Arkansas and a dynamic hub of culture, history, and innovation. Known for its pivotal role in the American civil rights movement, vibrant arts scene, and warm southern charm, Little Rock provides a meaningful and welcoming backdrop for the AWHPI Global Foundation's 20th Anniversary Celebration & Honors' Conclave.

Why Little Rock?

Little Rock is more than a host city – it represents resilience, transformation, and leadership. As the birthplace of global leaders and the site of historic change, it aligns with AWHPI's values of empowerment, justice, and legacy-building.

* 🏛️ Clinton Presidential Center – Showcasing artifacts, exhibits, and educational programming around U.S. and global diplomacy.

* 🎨 Pyramid Art, Books & Custom Framing – Venue for the Book Signing and Meet & Greet; this Black-owned cultural space celebrates African and diasporic creativity.

* 🏫 Historic Central High School National Historic Site – A symbol of civil rights and courage during the school integration crisis of 1957.

City Highlights:

* 🌳 River Market District – A lively downtown area featuring local cuisine, art galleries, music, and scenic trails along the Arkansas River.

* 🏠 Southern Hospitality – Welcoming accommodations, diverse culinary experiences, and a friendly community spirit await all attendees.

Accessibility:

Bill and Hillary Clinton National Airport (LIT) provides direct flights to major U.S. hubs.

- * The city offers convenient hotels, meeting spaces, and ground transportation options.
- * AWHPI will provide shuttle service and concierge support for VIP guests.
